MORE CONGRESSIONAL DOPE.

McNease Takes Another Whirl at the Situation in the Sixth.

The information was given in this special correspondence two months or more ago that Dr. George R. Tabor of Bryan would be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for congress from the Sixth congressional district to succeed Hon. Rufus Hardy. The recent personal announcement of Dr. Tabor confirms that prediction. The former State health officer has a host of friends in the counties making up the Sixth district, as well as the State at large. He moved to Dallas several years ago, but returned to his old love, Brazos county, about two years ago. A friend from Bryan, attending the State fair, said of Dr. Tabor's candidacy: "He can defeat Congressman Hardy single-handed. We believe he can get a majority of all the votes in every county in the district, with the possible exception of Navarro. And if the old Bailey issue is to be revived by Congressman Hardy and cut a figure in the campaign, then no man can lay claim to loyalty to Senator Bailey of more intensity than that shown by Dr. Tabor. He has always stood by what is known as Bailey's 'political policies', and is and always has been a close personal friend and firm political supporter of the senator. When Dr. Tabor goes after anything he usually gets it. If he doesn't beat Hon. Rufus Hardy that politically uncertain gentleman will know that Dr. Tabor has been in the running." This declaration makes it look like hot times just ahead for the fervid democracy of the Sixth district.—Houston Post.

CONSCIENCE.

Stirring Discourse at the Methodist Church Last Night.

A slightly improved congregation heard the sermon on the subject of "Conscience," at the Methodist church last night. The pastor declared that every soul, must follow the leadings of conscience if it would lay claim to honesty, or be prepared to receive further light, but that a conscience, through faulty education, may lead wrong, and is not, therefore, an infallible guide. He then pointed out that guilt would attend any violation of God's law, even if directed by conscience, if an honest effort to get light had not been made.

Rev. W. W. Damp, of the Episcopal church and Rev. J. T. Caughley, of the Presbyterian church, were highly appreciated worshippers.

In the afternoon, the subject of the discourse was "Secret Displeasure," and the best service of the series was held. The congregation was slightly improved.

This morning the pastor spoke at Allen Academy on the subject of "Drunkenness and the Liquor Traffic." He made an impassioned appeal to the young men to abstain from the use of any intoxicants, and while exercising charity toward those engaged in selling intoxicants, to swear eternal enmity to the traffic. He prophesied that some of the young men present would like not only to see Texas dry, but to see the nation dry, and wondering that it was ever willing to tolerate the unholy traffic for a day.

The subject tonight will be the Atonement, or God's remedy for sin.

FOOTBALL NOTES.

Coach Percy Haughton of Harvard coached the Cornell squad in 1900. Among the big ones, Yale holds the record of scoring the most points to date.

Virginia's victory over Annapolis this season was her first since 1893. Harvey Snyder, Harvard's former halfback, is coaching Oberlin again this fall.

Coach "Hurry Up" Yost of Michigan believes his team will surely win from Pennsylvania this year.

GENEROUS OFFER.

E. J. Jenkins Guarantees Parisian Sage to Cure Dandruff, Stop Falling Hair or Itching Scalp or Money Back.

But Parisian Sage is more than a cure for dandruff—it will make hair grow on any head where the hair bulb is not altogether dead.

And we want every reader of the Eagle to know that Parisian Sage is the most delightful hair dressing in the world. It is so pleasant to use, and its effect is so invigorating and refreshing, that it pleases everybody.

The women of Paris are, as a rule, beautiful and keep beautiful, and a careful American observer who has traveled much claims that their beauty is due to their knowledge of how to keep their hair luxuriant, which they do by using a superior hair tonic.

Many American women are as wise as their French sisters, and that is why Parisian Sage, the quickest acting and greatest of all hair restorers and tonics, is now having such a tremendous sale in America.

Mothers who want their children to grow up with vigorous and lustrous hair should surely use Parisian Sage.

Parisian Sage is sold by leading druggists everywhere and in Bryan by
